Product Description

Product Description:

The bag is available in black or can be customized to your desired color, making it perfect for personalization or branding purposes. The durable polyester material ensures that the bag can withstand frequent use without tearing or fraying, making it a reliable choice for daily errands or longer excursions.

Choose between silk screen printing or digital printing to add a personal touch to your bag. With silk screen printing, you can add your logo, design or message to one or both sides of the bag. With digital printing, you can add a full-color image or design to the bag, ensuring that your branding or personalization stands out.

Applications:

One of the best things about this tote bag is that it is versatile. You can use it for various occasions and scenarios such as grocery shopping, traveling, picnics, beach outings, and more. It is also perfect for promotional events or as a giveaway for your customers. You can customize the size, color, and printing of the bag to fit your branding needs.

Another great feature of this tote bag is that it is an RPET tote bag. RPET stands for recycled polyethylene terephthalate, which is a type of plastic material made from recycled plastic bottles. This means that buying this tote bag helps reduce the amount of plastic waste in the environment. So, not only is it functional, but it is also a sustainable choice.

When it comes to packaging, the Polyester Tote Bags come in 50pcs/ctn. The delivery time is 30 days after PPS confirmation, and the payment terms include L/C, D/A, D/P, T/T, Western Union, and MoneyGram. The supply ability of this product is 50000pcs/month, so you can be sure that you will receive your orders on time.
